FREEDOM AND DISCIPLINE:
POLITICAL THOUGHT IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

The last 100 years have seen much of the best and of the worst in human history. Why have they run, as it were, in parallel? The course explores this matter and deals with various understandings of the relation between individuals and the socio/political order in the 20th century. You are asked to buy the following books:

Carl Schmitt, Political Theology
Max, Weber, The Vocation Lectures
Tracy B. Strong, ed. The Self and the Political Order
Hannah Arendt, The Portable Hannah Arendt
A Reader from University Readers

REQUIREMENTS: attendance (note as the course meets once a week, if you miss a class you have missed a week); the reading (do before the class in which it will be discussed); a short midterm paper; an in-class final.
